About our speakers:

Abe Collins is a grazer, consultant, cofounder of LandStream, Inc. and a founding board member of the Soil Carbon Coalition. Abe has worked over his life to grow topsoil, turn deserts back into prairies, measure landscape-function, and build practical tools to equip farmers and ranchers to contractually grow natural capital and ecosystem services. He has grazed sheep, beef and dairy cattle and lives in Winooski, VT.

Allen Williams is a 6th generation family farmer and founding partner of Understanding Ag, LLC, Grass Fed Insights, LLC, and a partner in Joyce Farms, Inc. based in NC. Allen pioneered many of the early adaptive grazing protocols and forage finishing techniques and has spent the last fifteen years refining those. Allen specializes in whole farm and ranch planning based on the concept of regenerative agriculture. Their approach creates significant "value add" and prepares the landowner for multiple enterprise/revenue stream opportunities that stack enterprises and acres.

Jacob Horst is a 4th generation family farmer of Windmill Meadow, an organic grass-based dairy near Hagerstown, MD. He has successfully lowered his vet cost to less than $10/cow per year.

Hubert & Suzanne Karreman: Dr. Hubert Karreman is a Pioneer of Organic Veterinary Dairy Medicine, and an independent educator of organic veterinary medicine. Practicing in Lancaster, PA from 1995 – 2010, he now focuses on teaching and sharing the non-antibiotic methods he successfully utilized on organic livestock.

Suzanne Karreman runs their Reverence Farms in NC, which utilizes grazing, linebreeding, and a nursing herd.

Dear Fellow Graziers,
Lancaster County Graziers is planning their 27th annual grazing conference on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 18 and 19, 2020. Meeting address is 352 Martindale Road, Ephrata, PA 17522.

The 2020 conference theme is "Stewarding for Health and Wealth". This will prove to be a learning and stimulating time. We will learn how to make the most of our role as land stewards in regenerating topsoil and biodiversity - our natural capital; adaptive grazing for increased profitability, herd health with less pharmaceutical input, and honoring the Creator's design on our farms by investing in the long-term health of our land and food, which builds wealth in more than just money.

Come prepared to absorb the benefits of our speakers' experience.

John K. Lapp is in charge of the food. To donate or supply food contact him at 717-733-1766. This would be a good opportunity to get exposure for your food items.
